FASSIFERN NEWS.
On February 22nd recitations were suspended at noon and faculty and students assembled in the prettily decorated school room to do honor to the national hero. The program of the exercises was published in last week's issue. Mr. Blackstock, superintendent of the Hendersonville graded schools was the orator of the day, and his speech was appropriate, clever and most highly applauded.

In the evening Mrs. McBee and Miss Shipp entertained the students delightfully at a beautiful Colonial ball. The walls of the auditorium were festooned with national and state flags and the red, white and blue were artistically used everywhere as decorations. It was a charming sight when the doors were thrown open and the lights shone upon the fair faces, powdered hair, and gay costumes of those representing the distinguished society of Washington's time.

Refreshments consisting of ices and cakes were served. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Erson orchestra.

A party composed of Misses Leak, Little and Graham, chaperoned by Mrs. McBee, motored over to Asheville Friday to see the "Birth of a Nation."

Friday evening, February 25th, the Cameron Hall Juniors entertained the school at a tacky party. During a grand march, each girl passed before the faculty, who acted as judges of the tackiest costume. Misses Cobb and Gravely were voted the tackiest, and were presented with a long string of stick candy. The decorations were lavender and red. Punch, cake and stick candy was served.

Mrs. Wilcox and Master Reggie, Misses Person, Frank and Rose Martin, Jane Ruffin, Martha Gray, and Jessie Jenkins motored to Asheville Saturday to see "The Birth of a Nation."

Prompt Pay, Fair Pay, Slow Pay or "X"

HOW WILL YOU BE RATED?

As every man's credit record is of the utmost importance to him, we wish to give every citizen ample notice that they are being rated prompt pay, fair pay, slow pay, or "X" according to the way they pay their doctor, dentist, grocer, butcher, baker, coalman, rent man, furniture man, milkman and every one who extends them credit. As this book is used by all business and professional men of Hendersonville and vicinity as their guide in extending credit we trust you will find it to your best interest to call on anyone to whom you may owe money and pay up. If you can't pay all, pay as much as you can, so they can give you as good a rating as possible.
